If the contact person is outside of Taiwan, please provide a fax number or email address. This contact person must have first hand knowledge of the student and testify as to whether the student had academic and/or behavioral difficulties at school. We prefer to contact the most recent teacher. The opinion of the contact person will not determine acceptance or rejection of the applicant; However, it will contribute to a decision regarding a probationary acceptance.

Does the student have an academic, behavioral or physical disability, which, in the opinion of society, would hinder his/her daily task? If yes, please provide details.
